

30 January 2022

Highly Sanctioned Countries

These below countries are heavily sanctioned under federal regulations. A license may very likely be required to conduct business with these countries and/or traveling to them for university business. If travel is approved, a clean laptop must be taken to these countries. Contact Export Control (export@arizona.edu) for assistance.

- Crimea region of Ukraine
- Cuba
- Iran
- North Korea
- Syria

Other Heightened Risk Countries

The following countries, or entities within these countries, are also the subject of U.S. federal regulations, including export controls, sanctions or embargoes.

- |                            |                                |                    |
|----------------------------|--------------------------------|--------------------|
| ➤ Afghanistan              | ➤ Democratic Republic of Congo | ➤ Mali             |
| ➤ Balkans                  | ➤ Hong Kong                    | ➤ Nicaragua        |
| ➤ Belarus                  | ➤ Ethiopia                     | ➤ Russia           |
| ➤ Burma                    | ➤ Eritrea                      | ➤ Somalia          |
| ➤ China                    | ➤ Haiti                        | ➤ South Sudan      |
| ➤ Cambodia                 | ➤ Iraq                         | ➤ Sudan and Darfur |
| ➤ Central African Republic | ➤ Lebanon                      | ➤ Venezuela        |
| ➤ Cyprus                   | ➤ Libya                        | ➤ Yemen            |
|                            |                                | ➤ Zimbabwe         |

Contact Export Control (export@arizona.edu) if you would like an updated list. The above list is as of 30 January 2022