NOTES:

Members whose training, background, and occupation would incline them to view scientific activities from the standpoint of someone within a behavioral or biomedical research discipline should be considered a scientist, while members whose training, background, and occupation would incline them to view research activities from a standpoint outside of any biomedical or behavioral scientific discipline should be considered a nonscientist. In addition, the IRB must have members with sufficient knowledge of the specific scientific discipline(s) relevant to the research that it reviews.

Affiliation: Please indicate whether or not each individual (or a member of that person's immediate family) is affiliated (other than as an IRB member) with the institution or organization operating the IRB.

Yes = The IRB member is affiliated with the institution or organization operating the IRB.

No = The individual is not affiliated with the institution or organization operating the IRB.

Alternate Members: An alternate member(s) may be designated, as needed, for a regular voting member(s). An alternate member may vote only when the regular voting member is not voting.

When an institution or organization registers two or more IRBs, all alternate members for all IRBs may be listed on the roster of one IRB, or they may be listed separately with each IRB roster. A primary member of any IRB registered under the same IORG number may serve as an alternate for any comparably qualified member on any other IRB of that institution or organization. Primary members on registered IRBs serving as alternate members do not need to be listed as an alternate on any roster. Each alternate IRB member who replaces a primary member at any given meeting should have experience, expertise, background, professional competence, and knowledge equivalent to that of the primary IRB member whom the alternate will replace. Whenever an alternate member substitutes for a primary member of the IRB, the combined requirements of § 46.107(a) and 46.108(b) shall remain satisfied. Whenever this occurs, the minutes of the IRB meeting should indicate clearly that the alternate IRB member has replaced the designated primary IRB member, and include the identity of the replaced primary and the alternate members. If multiple alternate members serve at an IRB meeting, the pairing of primary and alternate members should be indicated.
